Board Accepts Bayside Streets

Action Paves Way For Road Repair

by Marileen Maher
Echo news editor

Bayside Park residents won a major victory Monday morning when the Hancock County Board of Supervisors officially accepted all streets in that subdivision on a temporary basis in order to perform emergency repairs to make the roads "passable during all types of weather."

The decision by the board was made on recommendation by the Hancock County Planning and Zoning Commission and was the culmination of several confrontations between irate Bayside residents and supervisors.

The resolution stipulates, however, that the board accepts only those streets "which are inhabited."

Beat One Supervisor Jerry Ladner, under whose jurisdiction the subdivision falls, voted against the proposal, claiming that he wanted the board to accept the streets on a permanent rather than temporary basis. However, when the other four supervisors agreed to grant the request if Ladner would make the motion, the beat one supervisor refused.

At one point during the discussion, Ladner threatened legal action if any supervisor brings county equipment into Bayside to repair the streets. "This is strictly illegal," Ladner said, "and we'll let the courts take care of it if you take this action."

For the past several weeks, Bayside residents have been asking supervisors to repair unpaved streets in the subdivision which are impassable during bad weather. Until Monday, county officials contended that because the county had accepted only the paved streets, the developer of the subdivision was responsible for maintaining unpaved roads.

A public meeting was held April 24 to allow both supervisors and Bayside residents an opportunity to ask Bayside developer William Bosworth to maintain the roads. Bosworth did not appear at the gathering but Alton Kellar, president of the board of supervisors, promised "some relief."

Following the board's decision, Mrs. Marie Strong, representing the Bayside

Park Civic Association, presented two petitions to supervisor... one fully supported attempts by supervisors from beats two, three, four and five to maintain the roads; and the other requested that if some relief was not forthcoming, work on all roads in Hancock County be stopped until a determination could be made as to which roads belonged to the county. Each petition contained 80 signatures.

In a Notice of Trustee's Sale which appears on page 4A of this week's Echo, Hancock Bank is foreclosing against certain property in Bayside Park owned by Bosworth Construction Company, Inc.

Lots involved in the foreclosure notice are located in Units 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the subdivision.

Roads seemed to be the main order of business for the supervisors as they also heard complaints about the Claiborne Bridge near Ansley and Oak St. in Springwood Park (adjacent to Bayside Park). In each instance, the board agreed to look into the problems and promised some action at a later date.

Upon recommendation by the planning and zoning commission, the board also accepted the following streets in Jourdan River Shores subdivision: PHASE ONE - Choctaw Drive, Chickasaw Road, Pontiac Drive and Pontiac Place; PHASE TWO - Apache Drive; Comanche Street; Pawnee Place, with the exception of the "eyebrow" which serves Lots 23-27 of Square 12; all of Shawnee Street North of Comanche Street to the East line of Lot 59, Square seven; Wanda Circle, Choctaw Point; that part of Ponotoc Drive extending from Comanche Street at Lot 17, Square five to the North line of Lot 40, Square five; that part of Cherokee Place extending from Ponotoc Drive to the East line of Lot 25, Square five; and Sophia Drive.

In other action, the board voted to allow Larry Seal, county engineer to perform base and sub-base tests on State Aid Road projects. Seal made the request at the suggestion of the State

Decision Delayed On Project Contract

A decision on awarding a contract to the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District to administer the Coast's Area-wide Model Project for Older Americans was postponed by Hancock County Supervisors Monday following an informal hearing on the matter.

Al Rushing, chairman of the Task Force for the Model Project, urged supervisors to consider giving the project to a local agency rather than to the Development District located in Hattiesburg.

Rushing told the board that Les Newcomb, director of SMPDD, had not consulted the Task Force on any decisions about the project and he felt that administration could better be handled on a local level.

Newcomb, who also appeared at Monday's meeting, told supervisors that the Task Force is to serve in an advisory capacity only and explained that the board would be given more "input on the Task Force in the future." Controversy over administration of AMPOA began in mid-April when Newcomb fired Mrs. Gwen Gollotte, Coast coordinator of the Project. Since that time, Gollotte supporters have asked Harrison and Hancock supervisors to reconsider awarding the contract to SMPDD.

The Harrison County Board of Supervisors passed a resolution Monday suggesting that the program be managed by the four-county Gulf Regional Planning Commission or by a recently organized ten-member Regional Economic Commission.

Alton Kellar, president of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, said at Monday's meeting that "our interest is for the senior citizens... I would hate to see this board take any action without considering all the facts."

SMPDD has administered the Project since March, 1972 and deadline for contract renewal is May 31.

Trustees Order Restraint On Physical Punishment

A resolution providing a temporary restraint on any further corporal punishments by Gulfview Elementary School teachers was adopted by the Hancock County School Board at a Tuesday night meeting.

The resolution followed a board hearing during which several parents of students in the Lakeshore School described numerous incidents of alleged abuse against students by teachers.

The first parent to address the board was Mrs. Vicente Ortiz, who had previously appealed to the board, as well as the state department of education, concerning what she alleged was abusive and physically harmful treatment of her 13-year-old son and another youth at the school by two male teachers some months ago. Although she and other parents had complained to the principal and the county superintendent of schools, Mrs. Ortiz maintained that the severe spanking had not stopped nor had other excessive disciplinary measures.

Superintendent Kenneth McCarty reminded Mrs. Ortiz at one point that when she first contacted him he had assured her that he would look into the matter immediately.

At the Tuesday meeting, Mrs. Ortiz told the board of more recent incidents in which according to her seven-year-old son, he had been tied to his desk by the first grade teacher for a whole afternoon, as well as several girl students' complaints of a fifth grade male teacher entering the girls' bathroom while they were using the facilities. Mrs. Ortiz related that she had discussed these incidents with Gulfview Principal Louis Ladner who she said refuted the credibility of the various students' details of both incidents.

Little League To Open Season

The Bay St. Louis Little League will open its 1973 season with a parade and a full slate of games, Saturday.

The parade will start at Bay Junior High School at 11 a.m. The route is from the school to Main Street to Dunbar Avenue to McDonald Field. Robert Van Peak is the parade marshal.

Gulf National Bank Cards, 1972 League Champions, take on Hancock Bank Lions in the opener at 1 p.m., followed by Merchants Bank Expos facing Jaycees Twins. The final game of the day matches Riemann Stars and American Legion Colts.

Don Caldwell, retired Parks and Playground commissioner, will toss out the first ball.

Team managers are: Ron Murray, Gulf National Bank; Ron Fletcher, Hancock Bank; Bart Carr, Jaycees; Charlie Lewis, Riemann; Mike Robinson, American Legion and Lee Paul, Merchants Bank.

Another parent, Charles Moran, who has several children in Gulfview School, interjected with a threat of physical assault upon any teacher imposing similar disciplinary measures on any of his children.

Beard President Horace Davis, Jr. explained to the group of parents that the board was more than willing to hold a public hearing on the matter as before the board could take any action, it would be necessary to hear both sides of the situation. On the demand by some of the parents for pre-emptory dismissal of the two teachers in question, Davis firmly stated that no one would be discharged without benefit of public hearing disclosing all aspects of the case.

He had just returned from Jackson, he continued, where he had conferred with state department of education officials and the attorney general's office, where he was advised that this would be the procedure to follow.

Board Attorney Ruble Griffin further clarified areas of jurisdiction in such matters stating that if the parents were bringing a complaint of misconduct against the teachers the school superintendent had the sole administrative power to conduct a hearing on such charges, rather than the board. If the parents were contemplating bringing criminal charges against the teachers, that was a matter for either a Justice of the Peace court or criminal court.

Griffin said, "I don't think this board can, under these circumstances, take any action other than to recommend to the superintendent that he not renew the teachers' contracts. The school board has no authority over criminal charges."

Following an open hearing by the superintendent, if the teacher is not satisfied with the decision, he has the right of appeal to the state department.

In answer to a question by Moran as to the legality of teachers spanking children in the state of Mississippi, Griffin informed the group that corporal punishment was allowed by state law, but must be administered within reason.

To prevent any further instances of contention over discipline in the school until the matter could be resolved, Davis said the board would go on record that night as taking interim action.

On a motion by trustee John Banks, seconded by Eric Larsen, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Be it resolved for the remainder of the school year 1972-73 that no physical punishment be inflicted by any teachers on any child at Gulfview School until such punishment be first approved by the principal of the school and given under his direction and in his presence."

On Griffin's suggestion that the parents take the original complaint of excessive beatings to a Justice of the Peace, two of the mothers affirmed that Mrs. Ortiz and Mrs. Santiago had done that. Mrs. Ortiz said she had signed an Incumbent Bay St. Louis Mayor Warren Carver will face John Scafide in the Democratic runoff May 15 according to unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary which shows Carver polled 842 votes to Scafide's tally of 783.

Results for other mayoral candidates are: O.J. McArthur 280 and Osmond Blake Sr. 90.

Scafide served as mayor of Bay St. Louis from 1968-1969.

In the race for commissioner, post one, Hancock County Civil Defense Director Lucien W. Kidd captured first place by totaling 574 votes, followed by John McKenna with 392. Both men will be in Tuesday's runoff. Results for other candidates in that race are: Eddie Englehorn 66; Charles Gottschalk, 307; Richard K. Homes 14; B. D. Johnson 308; and R. Mark Solomon 322.

Andre Arceneaux, incumbent post two commissioner, came in second in a field of five candidates and is faced with a runoff against Clarence Ladner, number one man in the race. Ladner received 747 while Arceneaux got 631. Other candidates in that race were Henry J. Prevou 138; Sidney Sandoz 117; and W. G. Seymour 60.

County To Certify Matching Funds For Extension

Final arrangements for financing the proposed extension of the Stennis Airport runway were discussed Tuesday night at an informal meeting of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors and the Port and Harbor Commission.

The project includes extending the runway from 4500 feet to 8500 feet, installation of high intensity runway and taxiway lights, construction of a 300-400 foot apron, building a parallel taxiway and an air cargo terminal.

Cost of the project is estimated at $2.8 million with half of that amount coming from the Federal Aviation Administration. The board of supervisors has agreed to certify the local matching funds, thereby making it possible for the commission to go ahead with the project as soon as bids are received.

Forty percent of the matching funds will be coming from the county with an additional 10 per cent Economic Development Administration grant.

"Although final approval has not been given on the BDA grant, the commission is hopeful that it will receive final acceptance in approximately 30 days," explained Dr. Michael Smith, executive director of the port and harbor commission.

According to Smith, bids will be received on the project May 15 and it will take about 30 days to get the applications processed. Construction should begin in late June, 1973, he said.

Griffin Resigns As School Board Attorney

J. Ruble Griffin, Bay St. Louis attorney, acting for the law firm of Favre, Griffin and Genn, tendered his resignation as attorney for the Hancock County School Board following a board meeting Tuesday night.

Griffin, who has also been serving as attorney for the county board of supervisors, representing the firm, was appointed some months ago by Governor William Waller as Judge for the Second District Circuit Court, covering Hancock, Harrison and Stone counties.

Although he initially accepted the 24-month appointment on a temporary basis for no more than a few weeks, Griffin still remains on the bench.

Recent ill health and a slower than anticipated recuperative period was the reason Griffin gave for the resignation, feeling that he could not do justice to his position as circuit court judge and serve the board simultaneously.

The resignation is effective June 1, 1973.

No Legal Action Taken Against Tracy

In a news story appearing in the May 3 issue of the Echo, recounting parents' protests of Gulfview School teachers' alleged beatings of students, one of the sentences was misleading in content.

Mrs. Beverly Ortiz was quoted as accusing teacher Norbert Tracy of beating her son Vincent "in front of the entire class." The article went on to say that Mrs. Ortiz took her son to Justice of the Peace Lee Klein where "she signed an affidavit against the teacher." The implication that the affidavit was signed against Tracy is erroneous. The charge was actually brought against Henry Witchee, another teacher implicated in the matter. There was no legal action taken against Tracy at that time.

Hospital Offering Specialized Services

A new policy recently set in effect at Hancock General Hospital now provides county residents considerably broader specialized medical services than ever before.

In the absence of resident specialists in the field of medicine, local general practitioners have expanded the hospital's medical staff to include a number of consulting specialists who come from New Orleans, Picayune,

CONCERT GIVEN

Mrs. Glendal Salters, organist, and Mrs. Toy Tedford, pianist, presented a concert of sacred instrumental music Sunday at the 11 a. m. worship hour at First Baptist Church, 141 Main Street.

Ronnie Hague, minister of music and youth, sang a medley of songs during the program and Mrs. Bart Carr played the offertory.

Mrs. Salters, who has served the church as organist for seven years, was presented an engraved charm and a clustered diamond pendant as an expression of appreciation for her years of devoted service. Both Mrs. Salters and Mrs. Tedford were given a crystal and silver vase with a red rose.

The Salters family will move to Houston, Texas, at the end of May.

Pass Christian and Gulfport to perform intricate surgical and treatment procedures at Hancock General.

Formerly, a patient requiring treatment or general surgery in the areas of cardiology, urology, gastroenterology or neurology had to be referred to out-of-town practitioners or large medical centers, such as hospitals in Gulfport or New Orleans. Although the county hospital is considered by those in the field to be unusually well equipped for an institution of its size, it was lacking the specialized medical staff to handle the more intricate procedures and treatments required for certain maladies.

Through the efforts of local general practitioners an increasing number of well-known and highly regarded specialists have joined the hospital's staff as consultants, enabling county residents to remain in the local hospital and receive the same care and treatment as they would at a large, far more expensive out-of-town hospital.

An excellent case in point is that of a procedure which was performed at HGH Saturday on a 79-year-old patient by Dr. William Bean. A radiologist at East Jefferson General Hospital in New Orleans, Dr. Bean has perfected a procedure for removing gall stones without surgery. According to Dr. Sidney Chevis, Dr. Bean is believed to be the first physician in the world to remove gall stones by this process and conducted the first successful removal in 1970. Since that time, he has accomplished 34 such procedures in hospitals all over the country.

The process normally only takes about 20 minutes, Dr. Chevis said, where an operation would take from four to five hours, often proving dangerous for elderly patients.

Another instance cited was that of cardiac patients who, until very recently, had to leave the area for specialized

WOW Holds Meeting

Donald Burch, Hattiesburg, Woodmen of the World Area Manager, was guest speaker at Saturday night's banquet hosted by W.O.W. Unit 507 in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Mr. Burch presented the Woodmen of the year award to Carl McIntyre, Unit 507 president, and Woodmen of Woodcraft pin and plaque to Mrs. Charles Scianna, Unit secretary. Mr. Burch said the awards, the highest given by the Association, are presented annually to outstanding members. Mr. Scianna and Mrs. McIntyre each received a gift.

There were approximately 60 members and guests attending. Coming from out of town were James Strickland, representative from Gulfport, Mrs. Strickland and Donald Breland, Hattiesburg.

Door prizes went to Mrs. Walter Turcotte and Antoine Saucier.

Horse Shows Scheduled

Two local horseback riding organizations will sponsor dual horse shows at the Hancock County Fairgrounds May 24.

An English horse show will be the first event at 4 p.m., sponsored by the Gulf Coast Pony Club. Open to all young riders 18-years-old or under, the English show will have five classes to include Short Stirrups, English Equitation Pleasure, Pony Hunter and Junior Hunter. Dress for this event calls for hunt clothes and hard hats, although coats will not be required. Mounts are restricted to geldings and mares in ponies and horses. Entry fees are $2 per class.

The Western Show will begin at 8 p.m. and is sponsored by the Hancock County 4-H Clubs. Participation in the show is restricted to 4-H club members 19-years-old or under.

Traditionally a lengthy event, the 4-H show will offer 20 classes to include showmanship, gaited pleasure, Western pleasure,

Western riding, pole bending, barrel racing and quadra-ple barrel racing and others.

The show is planned to determine which youthful riders will represent Hancock County in the District Show in Newton, Miss., scheduled for July 12-14.

Exhibitors under nine-years-old may show only in the county event, not in the District, according to the county agent's office.

Entry fee is $1 per class and all horses must have been owned and cared for by their exhibitors since May 1, 1973.

The two shows will be open to the general public at no charge for admission.

Senior Citizens Happenings

Eve McDonald 467-6291

A country music sing-a-long with Fip Johnson and his Country Boys was the featured entertainment for this week's Monday program. The country boys include Bill Johnson and Lige Lee on the fiddle, Danny Johnson on the lead guitar, and Joe Cacioppo on the base fiddle. The music really had everyone's feet tapping, and some were even dancing. Mary Williams won the door prize, a beauty. Indian sand craft bottle donated by Mrs. Elmo Nolan. During the program several local politicians were on hand to talk with the Seniors about their views before the city election.

Next Wednesday, May 16, will be the county-wide picnic honoring Senior Citizens Month, to be held at the new Jackson Ridge park area by the beach in Lakeshore. The picnic will be held from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., with everyone bringing his own sack lunch. The Center will provide transportation and drinks for everyone. Fip Johnson and his band will be on hand again for musical entertainment. The park site is really nice, on a high ridge with shady trees and benches and picnic tables.

There are still openings in several classes at the center. A small appliance repair class, taught by Hugh Miller, has just begun and meets every Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. Stitch and Chat meets every Thursday at 9:30 a. m., and several articles made by this class were exhibited at the Health Fair at Hancock General Hospital this weekend. New classes will be added later, so anyone who is interested in taking or teaching a class, please call the Center, 467-6291, and share your ideas.

Our Readers Write

Dear Sirs:

In order to clarify a gross misrepresentation of our school, we the faculty, submit this letter of clarification. We hope that it correctly states the facts, clarifies the issues, and defends the good name of our fellow faculty members at Gulfview School.

Recently, The Sea Coast Echo carried a rather startling headline on the front page, "Teachers Accused of Beating Students". The facts are quite different from the story that was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Ortiz were ejected from the campus because they could not conduct themselves in an orderly and appropriate manner. They used profane language, failed to check in at the office, and threatened to assault a teacher. Outrageous conduct like the above mentioned would not be tolerated on any campus, and certainly not at Gulfview.

As for the other allegations reported in the Echo, yes, children are punished at Gulfview School. However, they are spanked - not beaten.

A small minority of our students are disruptive troublemakers; the vast majority of our students are decent, hard working, intelligent young people. This troublesome minority no doubt suffers from poor home conditions and lack of educational incentives. These children are NOT going to be allowed to prevent our normal students from attaining an education. To be sure, if parents of disruptive children defend them and accuse teachers of brutality, the entire educational process will be destroyed. It is a pity some parents are so maladjusted. Perhaps all would better be served if such children did stay at home.

Finally, The Sea Coast Echo has done a great harm to the community, the school, and the teachers by not checking into all of the facts.

Brutality and cruelty are not standard modes of conduct among the teachers of Gulfview School. We do not brutalize or abuse our pupils. We do not insult or demean parents. We do not neglect or discount the needs of our pupils. However, we are educators, and it is our duty to instruct and educate our charges. When need be we shall discipline them in order to conduct our classes in an orderly manner.

TUESDAY

Dear Sir:

I would like to take this opportunity to correct an error you made in last week's paper when reporting my statement at the public hearing on relocating the hospitality booth. My request was that the highway dept. erect an official I-10 directional sign before the exit of 607 as soon as possible. Reading: 4-lane Direct Route to Mobile-not scenic route as mentioned in your paper.

We came back from Camille with determination and the help of this industry bringing in out-of-state money, plus the S.B.A. funds to rebuild. This time we can do little to help ourselves and S.B.A. can't help, only the Hwy. Dept. can do the job. Only they can save us from the unnecessary man-made disaster. Let's all use our efforts, determination to have the Hwy. Dept. erect this Hospitality Station anywhere west of Hwy. 607. This station is a long-term part solution that will direct some of the thru traffic on Hwy. 90 for years to come even after the I-10 is open across the entire state. But most important spending a few dollars now erecting an official Hwy. Dept. sign before the exit of 607. This can be permanent or temporary, bit or little, whatever it must be erected now or at least before I-10 is open to Gulfport to save Hancock County's only large industry.

We do not want this sign to read scenic route. The Highway Dept. has told us that Travelers avoid scenic routes and I believe this, as I do and possibly you do, when you see a scenic route sign when driving in an unknown part of the country, you are afraid it might be a narrow, poor, round about way so you stay to the main highways.

This wording will direct all the through traffic to Hwy 90 and all the way along the Gulf Coast. The first question asked by 90 percent of the people that come into my motel or when they stop at a service station is "how far is it to Mobile?" Because Mobile is the next major center on their map from there they can go to Birmingham, Atlanta, Florida or any destination East.

Dix Ashman

Dear Sir:

Would like to express my views on the present high prices of meat and food in general. Number one is weather destruction. Number two forced policies by government. Number three methods used by unionism.

The number one cause, we, as weak mortals, can do nothing in most cases. The second cause, we can do the correct thing to alleviate this cause, by using the law of supply and demand; doing away with the forced policies of a Bureaucratic socialistic inclined government; paying farmers not to grow, the essential elements of food; creating idle land, where crops should be growing. This is ridiculous. It is possible this flooding devastation will teach them a lesson? I think not, with this present human breed. The progressive Left is unmerciful.

Tom Anderson, a man high in the ranks of projects of Agriculture and farming, could speak with wisdom and eloquence on this subject.

Now the next cause: Unionism; is very simple to understand; everyone knows, when wages go up, the commodity of which the wages relate to goes up, in cost to the buyer, or consumer. This condition affects the fixed income group, the retirees, who receive the same pension checks. The sunset of their lives, disrupted by anxiety and insecurity. To cut V.A. and Social Security seems cowardly. Those who risked their lives deserve top priority in pensions and hospital care. Our government, instead of wasting taxpayers money on trips to the moon and space platforms, should donate its time and finance, creating huge disaster relief funds, for hospitals, tornado shelters, and grants in aid for doctors and nurses. Let us become more humane; drop our blustering vanity and pride trying to be first in material glory and ultimate futility.

Perhaps God is sending all these frequent natural disasters to awaken us to gargantuan human needs; lest we forget that Biblical admonition: "From Dust Thou Art, To Dust Thou Shalt Return."

Forestry Report

Selective thinning of timber stands, according to Michael Hendry, Mississippi Forestry Commission, is of vast importance to Hancock county landowners.

Selective thinning is the term used by Foresters to describe the partial harvesting of a stand before it matures. It is designed to remove trees that are undesirable with regard to species, straightness, position in the stand, and value, to give trees of better characteristics more room to develop.

By selectively thinning a stand the owner receives an immediate income from the products marketed while improving his stand of timber for future growth and development. The final result of a selective thinning is more high quality timber that will bring a higher price on the market.

According to Hendry the Mississippi Forestry Commission has been selectively marking private timber holdings for several years. He remarked that he can mark up to 40 acres per landowner free of charge. Additional marking can be done by the Forestry Commission on an actual cost basis. Any individual interested in obtaining information concerning assistance in selectively marking his timber is urged to contact Michael Hendry at his office in Bay St. Louis, Ph. 467-5456.

Rebuilding Begins In Managua

PART II

By William G. Gaudet
Managua, Nicaragua—Those who think that the worst is past for Managua and that only wondrous days are ahead are people who have not been involved in a giant rehabilitation or who have never witnessed the horrors of a nightmarish earthquake. In his new office, now located in La Cuesta Country Club, U.S. Ambassador Turner Shelton sat and quietly told me of the events of the night of the quake. He was dry-eyed and spoke softly as he told me of seeing the body of his secretary who was crushed to death and of her companion, still alive, but pinned beneath the rubble. Carefully you listen and to all outward appearances little emotion is noticed. But it is there, deep, fused in such a way as not to give his true feelings away. He knows full well the heavy role that he has to play in his position as Ambassador of the United States. This now is the hard task and decisions have to be made, and made alone.

Less than three months have passed, and already the scavengers and vultures have descended upon Managua, coming in the guise of helping, but really trying to make a buck or so off the miseries of these people. Some are easy to handle and disregarded promptly. The case of the man, who spoke with great intensity and held a mechanical contraption in his hand which he said could supply Managua with all the electricity it would need. All he needed was an audience with General Somoza, which he hoped the Ambassador could arrange. That proposal was so ludicrous that the Ambassador did not have to concern himself very much. But then came the real pros and this is when the going really gets rough and being an Ambassador is not easy. Over at the El Retiro, the private residence of General Somoza, which is now his official office also, the same act is being played out. Since so much has to be done, and since Somoza knows he needs so much help, he almost has to listen to every proposal, hopeful that in some small way it will help his country get back on its feet. The result is that Somoza now is working between 18 and 20 hours a day, and so much, so very much is simply wasted. In the three months since the earthquake, Somoza has aged 10 years. Like the Ambassador, he is dry-eyed, but on closer look you can see the weariness and the sadness. What has happened is very unreal, and yet he is trying to work and act as if nothing actually has happened. Three times each week he has a meeting with his Emergency Committee and listens to reports from every agency that is involved with the rehabilitation of the country. These meetings start at 6:30 in the evening and are held in the back of his home at El Retiro. One by one the reports are read—from the Minister of Public Works, the Red Cross, the Chamber of Industries, the Head of the light company, Dr. Luis Manuel Debayle and so forth. And at the end of every meeting he set up special appointments for some of the Ministers to meet with him afterwards. Through it all he outwardly appears calm—and he is. He even remains silent while reports are announced as to donations of assistance which have been received and for what purpose the monies are to be used. But what are his real thoughts. This is not just a question of physical rebuilding. What he is confronted with is a complete restructuring of a whole government, with ministries which are operating from tents located on the grounds of El Retiro. Currently more than 30,000 people are living in tent cities. The tents were donated by the United States, Spain and Germany. These are to be preferred over the bare ground but life in such a camp is not too pleasant. Talk to these people and you hear few complaints, nor do you see tears or hear emotional outbursts. For the most part the men are away from the camps working, while the women remain behind to care for the children, do the washing and the cooking. Most of those living in these tent cities have little hope of getting the money to rebuild a new home. And for the moment few are making any plans. Big hope for these people is that more stable housing will be built before the rains come. The United States has given Nicaragua an outright grant of $3,000,000 to build three campes, called Las Americas 1, 2 and 3. Each will have 15,000 units with a galvanized tin roof but no floor. Construction is well underway and the outlook is that the entire project was to be completed no later than April 15. These three units will accommodate between 60 and 65,000 persons. By no standard can these structures be labeled elaborate. The toilet facilities are the old Chic Sales and shower stalls and washing facilities are built for every eight houses. The more fortunate ones who lost their homes in Managua are those who have friends or relatives in outlying areas from Managua, or in Masaya, Tiptapa, Granada, Leon, Matagalpa, Diriamba or a half dozen other smaller towns. One of the most tragic aspects is that few of those who survived know the fate of friends or relatives. And Managuans have become so scattered that it will be months before a true, accurate counting can even be attempted. Nor do these people really know the full extent of the damage to Managua proper. Virtually the entire center of the city, including residential areas and business sections have been cordoned off and only those with a special pass are allowed in this area. Real reason for keeping these people out is to protect them from developing melancholia which in turn could result in a high suicide rate. In talking to these people in the camps it takes little deduction to realize that a high percentage are still in a state of shock. Even though a visitor to these camps witnesses no undue great hardships, sees no tears, hears no emotional outbursts, departure leaves the visitor with a tremendously deep feeling of sadness, realizing that all of this is because of events which required less than 40 seconds. On leaving, the visitor instinctively pauses and reflects and murmurs—"Oh, God, is all this really true?"

Students Given 'Extra' Classes

If you hear a little six to eight year old hollering "Hols, Amigo, que tal?", you can be quite certain that he attends Waveland Elementary School. It is all part of a program by first and second grade teachers to upgrade their curriculum. The teachers got together some time ago and decided the children needed a foreign language, physical education, more art and social studies. During the last period of the day when the children are usually tired, the teachers switch classes. Mrs. Coral Gaudet teaches Spanish one day a week to each first and second grade class. Mrs. Chris Thomann teaches physical education, while Miss Mary Margaret Turcotte teaches art and Mrs. Charlotte Johnson teaches social studies—the latter with guest speakers and film strips or movies. And the children love it... in spite of the fact that they are getting a much broader education.

COUNCIL MEETS
Hancock County Extension Homemakers Council met last Friday afternoon at the Agriculture Center with Mrs. H. W. Fuke, president, presiding. Miss Dixie Parker, Extension Home Economist, discussed and demonstrated cooking for one or two. It was announced the Council and 4-Hers dress review will be held at 2 p. m., May 25 at the center.

MRS. EDWARD SMITH

Miss LaFontaine Weds Mr. Smith

Miss Shelley Lynn LaFontaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. LaFontaine of Gulfport, formerly of Bay St. Louis, became the bride of Edward Dewey Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey N. Smith of Calvary, Ga., Sunday, April 29, at St. James Catholic Church, Mississippi City. Rev. Patrick McDermott performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Zora Carver, organist, and Mrs. Nan Lovett, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white English net and Venice formal gown fashioned with a V-neckline accented at the throat by Venice lace. Lace trimmed the long fitted sleeves. Bouquets of lace, mock-tied with pink satin ribbons, embellished her full skirt which swept into a train at the back. Overlays of Venice lace and pink satin ribbons trimmed the skirt and train. She wore a matching headpiece and long veil of silk illusion and carried a cascade of roses.

Miss Karan Smith, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as maid of honor. Mrs. Ronald LaFontaine was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Kelley Ladner, Candice Ladner and Peggy Haas, cousins of the bride.

Dewey N. Smith was his son's best man. Ushers were Mack Smith, brother of the groom, Ronald LaFontaine, brother of the bride, Hershel Killough, Donald Dalton and Tommy Bordage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the American Legion Home, Mississippi City.

After a wedding trip to the East Coast, the couple will reside in Columbus, Ga.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mayor and Mrs. Garfield Ladner of Waveland and the late Mr. and Mrs. Roland LaFontaine Sr. of Bay St. Louis.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Kathryn Ann Serpas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armand H. Serpas Sr., bride-elect of Herbert Vallon Jr., was honored with a surprise miscellaneous bridal shower on May 6 at the home of Mrs. Frank Cusimano. Also serving as hostesses were Misses Barbara White, Denise Vallon, Tina Serpas, Madames Charles Burgeois and Lester Green.

The color scheme of the shower was blue and white. The gifts were presented from a wishing well trimmed with white net, pink roses and white stephanitis.

The honoree's table was overlaid with a white linen tablecloth decorated with blue and white napkins and small rose mints.

The center of the table featured a cake in the shape of double wedding bells. It was trimmed with blue roses and white lilies of the valley.

The honoree's corsage featured miniature kitchen utensils, trimmed with blue ribbon and white net. Each guest received a miniature corsage.

The mothers, Madames Herbert Vallon Sr. and Armand H. Serpas Sr., each were given a similar corsage of miniature kitchen utensils.

Miss Fricke Will Wed Keith Ladner

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fricke Sr., of Bay St. Louis, announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Kathryn Jean to Keith Andrew Ladner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Ladner, also of Bay St. Louis.

The wedding will take place at 2 p.m. June 18 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church followed by a reception at St. Clare's Costello Hall, Waveland.

The bride-elect, a 1972 graduate of Hancock North Central High School, is presently employed with Charlie-Henderson Ford, Inc., Bay St. Louis.

The prospective groom is a 1969 graduate of St. Stanislaus College. He is presently employed with Winn-Dixie Food Chain, Bay St. Louis. Relatives and friends are invited.

KANTCHA KETCHUM
By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

The weather for the past week or more has been beautiful and excellent for fishing with no rain. The winds have been rather strong at times. Bass fishing has improved with some good water found at several places especially in local lakes, up Jourdan River, Bayou LaCade, and Rotten Bayou. Perch are still being caught on worms and the fly rod, with popping bugs. Bass were caught mostly by casting with underwater plugs. A few speckles were gotten in nets out front. They have still not moved in in quantities. Some croakers were caught up Jourdan River last week.

Hard crabs are giving better. Some nice ones were caught along the seawall from Cedar Point to Bayou Caddy, with plenty gumbo crabs thrown in. Soft crabs and flounders are not doing too hot. There is still hope that they will start giving soon. The bad water out front is hindering things a little.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK—Among our local hunters and fishermen is Claude Garcia. Claude is the son of Lloyd Garcia who he takes behind when it comes to doing both sports. When not working he can be found with a rod or gun in his hand.

and fishermen. He is still passing out cigars.

On a recent crabbing trip, Joe Housley and Mopey caught a dozen. They were all big ones. Mopey also brought home a good sunburn.

Alden Mautray is limping around due to having dropped a battery on his foot. It hasn't stopped him from going fishing however.

Chester Bourgeois and his wife are among those who have been getting their share of hard crabs. They caught them off the seawall down by Bayou Caddy.

A number of eels are being caught up Jourdan River. One about 4 feet long was caught the other day on earthworms. People claim they are good eating. Not for me, thank you! Eels are seen quite often by those out soft shell crabbing. They are not dangerous but look so.

Caroline Adam said she has been catching some nice crabs off the seawall down at Lakeshore. She is an expert at catching them.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stevens enjoy sports. Pete plays golf while Rhonda does the fishing.

Wilson Niolet and Lamar Lader showed us a nice string of perch and trout Sunday which they caught in a local lake. Both are from DeLisle and have worms for sale in that section.

Charlie Mutter was over visiting his brother Ben Mutter. He is from Savannah, Ga. Does a lot of fishing in the Savannah River and is also a golfer.

Gene Rolland and James Bagley are new residents in Waveland. They are retired and expect to fish and do crabbing. Have been visiting the Coast for years. Their ambition to live on the Coast is now fulfilled. Gene was a former safe and lock man while James was with the Bar Shoe Shop. Welcome fellows.

Roy J. Legendre enjoys a lot of fishing and crabbing down by Waveland. He is from the Big City of New Orleans. Says there is nothing like the Gulf Coast in his way of thinking.

Alvin Schneider is from Cedar Point. Alvin does mostly salt water fishing, crabbing and floundering. There are no better sports, he said.

This year has been a wonderful one for blackberries. They were most everywhere. The season is about over. Dewberries will be next on the agenda.

Henry J. Calamari is in the real estate and insurance business in New Orleans. When not busy he spends a lot of time at his home on the bayou at Ansley, fishing and enjoying other outdoor sports.

The S.S.C. Sideline Fair held over the weekend was a success. Fishing by the young squirts in the fish pond was a lot of fun, but no fish were caught.

Hoke Ogden, Harry Roman and Louis Decell have gone to cat fish fishing. Have been having good results catching them up Jourdan River lately. All three fish and hunt when the seasons are open.

Randy Adam and Yours Truly were pretty busy running the golf game at the fair. The putting courses were a novelty for the younger folks.

Alden Mautray and Yours Truly made a nice catch of bass Sunday. The fish were caught by casting in a local lake. Alden caught a 3 1/2 pounder which gave him a thrill. Don't get that size on every trip, said the old time fisherman.

Another good fishing section is at DeLisle up in Harrison County on Wolfe River. Bass and perch fishing is good when conditions are right. There is a public ramp on the road between Wolfe River and DeLisle. Boats can be rented at DeLisle, another convenience.

There was a bunch of tired folks Sunday night after working at the Sideline Fair for two nights, handling booths, cooking food and other concessions. They are to be congratulated.

Ogden Kergosien doesn't do much fishing but he likes to paddle others. He gets a kick out of watching them bring'em in. Does his share when it comes to eating fish, crabs, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Garcia celebrated the birth of a 7 lb. 9 1/2 oz. son, which was born on May 7th. Larry is a hunter.

Registration deadline for the Water Safety Instructor Course sponsored by the GULF Coast Chapter of the American Red Cross is May 12, according to Mrs. L. L. Kergosien, Executive secretary.

Part I of the two-part course will be held at the College Park Community Center on O'Donnell Street, Mississippi City with classes scheduled to begin at 6:30 p. m.

Those having participated and passed Senior Life Saving Courses are eligible. Upon completion, the course will enable the participant to be an instructor in life saving and water safety.

Contact Mrs. Kergosien for registration at 467-5045.

INSTALLATION
Theodore S. Price Post 3253, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold installation of officers at 8 p. m. Thursday at the Knights of Columbus home in Bay St. Louis. This will be a joint installation of VFW officers and auxiliary officers.

When I grow up I want an all electric home, too

"The air in our house feels so good. Our house is quiet and comfortable and it's all-electric. Mom says electricity saves her time in doing housework, like washing and drying my clothes, washing dishes, and cooking. Our all-electric home also makes it easier for her to keep our home clean. Our all-electric home is nice because it gives my mom more time to spend with me."

Discover the many advantages of an all-electric home. Before you modernize, buy, or build, talk with one of our Residential Representatives and learn the full details about electric living. There is no charge or obligation for his service.
